UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
BEFORE THE NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD

TRI-STATE METAL WORKS, INC.

and

Case 22-CA-072415

SHEET METAL WORKERS LOCAL UNION 25

ORDER

On November 20, 2012, Administrative Law Judge Steven Fish of the National Labor Relations Board issued his Decision in the above-entitled proceeding and, on the same date, the proceeding was transferred to and continued before the Board in Washington, D.C. The Administrative Law Judge found that the Respondent has engaged in certain unfair labor practices, and recommended that it take specific action to remedy such unfair labor practices.

No statement of exceptions having been filed with the Board, and the time allowed for such filing having expired,

Pursuant to Section 10(c) of the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, and Section 102.48 of the National Labor Relations Board Rules and Regulations, the Board adopts the findings and conclusions of the Administrative Law Judge as contained in his Decision, and orders that the Respondent, Tri-State Metal Works, Inc., its officers, agents, successors, and assigns, shall take the action set forth in the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge.¹

Dated, Washington, D.C., November 7, 2014.

By direction of the Board:

Farah Z. Qureshi

Associate Executive Secretary

¹ By order dated October 24, 2014, the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit granted the National Labor Relations Board's motion to vacate and remand this proceeding in light of NLRB v. Noel Canning, a Division of the Noel Canning Corp., 134 S. Ct. 2550 (June 26, 2014). Accordingly, the Board is now issuing a new unpublished Order in the absence of exceptions.
